Guidelines for World Wide Campus Student Opportunity Fund

PURPOSE

The World Wide Campus Student Opportunity Fund provides financial support to undergraduate students of the College of Arts and Sciences at Illinois State University who plan to participate in a study abroad program connected with the university. This grant is intended to supplement travel funds provided by departments/schools or other organizations.

AWARD DESCRIPTION

Awards are for $750 for travel as part of a study abroad program connected with the university.

SELECTION PROCESS AND CRITERIA

The Office of the Dean of the College of Arts and Sciences will make these awards. Applications from all undergraduate students who have either a first or second major in the College of Arts and Sciences will be considered. Each proposal must include the endorsement of the student's Chair/Director on the cover page of the proposal.

PROPOSAL PROCESS AND SUBMISSION DEADLINES

Two submission and review cycles will occur each academic year. A student may receive this award only once. E-mail proposals to separry@ilstu.edu.

PROPOSAL FORMAT

Students must fill out this application.

In addition, students should attach a short essay about why they've chosen the country where they are studying, and how the study abroad will complement their academic and professional plans. The description should be written in a clear and straightforward style and not exceed 350 words.
